- I understand that by opting out of the Victims Register, the team will no longer collect relevant information from the Mental Health Review Tribunal (the Tribunal) in relation to the Forensic Patient and will not be able to provide me with any details concerning the Forensic Patient.
- I understand that by opting out of the Victims Register, the team will not be notified should there be a serious risk to my safety posed from the Forensic Patient.
- I understand that if I decide to re-register on the Victims Register I will be required to complete a new registration form and the team will need to verify my identity again by sighting an original document.

Any information provided by the Specialist Victims Support Service through the Victims Register is confidential, and I understand that I cannot share or publish this information after I am no longer registered.

If you would like to remain on the Victims Register but do not want to receive notifications about Tribunal hearings or the Forensic Patient, you can update your notifications by contacting our team on 1800 411 822. All notification changes must be confirmed in writing and can be emailed to svss@justice.nsw.gov.au
