

Charter of Victims Rights complaints

(Victims Rights and Support Act 2013)

You have a right to make a complaint if you believe that any NSW department, or any person (excluding private legal officers and medical practitioners) or non-government agency funded by the State to provide services to victims of crime has not acted in accordance with the Charter of Victims Rights.

The first step is to contact the agency directly unless you do not feel comfortable doing so. If you are not sure that your complaint relates to a Charter issue, there is a copy of the Charter of Victims Rights on the back page of this document.

Privacy Notice: Victims Services is collecting the information that you provide on this form for the purpose of investigating complaints in relation to the Charter of Victims Rights. The details of your complaint will only be disclosed to the agency or contractor that you are making the complaint against with your consent. If you do not consent, we can note your concerns, but will not take any action. Victims Services will collate non-identifying data arising from this complaint to use for reporting and identifying trends.

Please note that the questions on the form are optional and you are not required to answer questions that make you feel uncomfortable or are not applicable to you.

Charter of Victims Rights (Victims Rights and Support Act 2013)

1 Courtesy, compassion and respect

A victim will be treated with courtesy, compassion, cultural sensitivity and respect for the victim's rights and dignity.

2 Information about services and remedies

A victim will be informed at the earliest practical opportunity, by relevant agencies and officials, of the services and remedies available to the victim.

3 Access to services

A victim will have access where necessary to available welfare, health, counselling and legal assistance responsive to the victim's needs.

4 Information about investigation of the crime

A victim will, on request, be informed of the progress of the investigation of the crime, unless the disclosure might jeopardise the investigation. In that case, the victim will be informed accordingly.

5 Information about prosecution of accused

- (1) A victim will be informed in a timely manner of the following:
- (a) the charges laid against the accused or the reasons for not laying charges,
 - (b) any decision of the prosecution to modify or not to proceed with charges laid against the accused, including any decision for the accused to accept a plea of guilty to a less serious charge in return for a full discharge with respect to the other charges,
 - (c) the date and place of hearing of any charge laid against the accused,
 - (d) the outcome of the criminal proceedings against the accused (including proceedings on appeal) and the sentence (if any) imposed.
- (2) A victim will be consulted before a decision referred to in paragraph (1) (b) is taken if the accused has been charged with a serious crime that involves sexual violence or that results in actual bodily harm or psychological or psychiatric harm to the victim, unless:
- (a) the victim has indicated that he or she does not wish to be so consulted, or
 - (b) the whereabouts of the victim cannot be ascertained after reasonable inquiry.

6 Information about trial process and role as witness

A victim who is a witness in the trial for the crime will be informed about the trial process and the role of the victim as a witness in the prosecution of the accused.

7 Protection from contact with accused

A victim will be protected from unnecessary contact with the accused and the defence witnesses during the course of court proceedings.

8 Protection of identity of victim

A victim's residential address and telephone number will not be disclosed unless a court otherwise directs.

9 Attendance at preliminary hearings

A victim will be relieved from appearing at preliminary hearings or committal hearings unless the court otherwise directs.

10 Return of property of victim held by State

If any property of a victim is held by the State for the purpose of investigation or evidence, the inconvenience to the victim will be minimised and the property returned promptly.

11 Protection from accused

A victim's need or perceived need for protection will be put before a bail authority by the prosecutor in any bail application by the accused.

12 Information about special bail conditions

A victim will be informed about any special bail conditions imposed on the accused that are designed to protect the victim or the victim's family.

13 Information about outcome of bail application

A victim will be informed of the outcome of a bail application if the accused has been charged with sexual assault or other serious personal violence.

14 Victim impact statement

A relevant victim will have access to information and assistance for the preparation of any victim impact statement authorised by law to ensure that the full effect of the crime on the victim is placed before the court.

15 Information about impending release, escape or eligibility for absence from custody

A victim will, on request, be kept informed of the offender's impending release, or escape from custody, or of any change in security classification that results in the offender being eligible for unescorted absence from custody.

16 Submissions on parole and eligibility for absence from custody of serious offenders

A victim will, on request, be provided with the opportunity to make submissions concerning the granting of parole to a serious offender or any change in security classification that would result in a serious offender being eligible for unescorted absence from custody.

17 Financial assistance for victims of personal violence

A victim of a crime involving sexual or other serious personal violence is entitled to make a claim under the Victims Support Scheme.

18 Information about complaint procedure where Charter is breached

A victim may make a complaint about a breach of the Charter and will, on request, be provided with information on the procedure for making such a complaint.
